

September 2015 Acknowledgements
College of Liberal Arts

Congratulations:

Walter Wright (POSI) has received an award from the Association of Conflict Resolution for his outstanding record of service. Additionally, The Houston Journal of International Law has instituted an annual "Walter A. Wright Award" for "Outstanding Comment in International Law."

Kent Reilly (ANTH) has been asked by the School for Advanced Research (SAR) to give a Presidential Seminar on the Spiro Mounds at the SAR campus in Santa Fe, New Mexico.

In the News:

External Venues

Michael Faber's (POSI) Op-Ed, "The U.S. Constitution Isn't Just for Politicians and Lawyers" was published in the Austin American Statesman. (9/16)

<http://www.mystatesman.com/news/news/opinion/faber-the-us-constitution-isnt-just-for-politician/nnf2R/>

David Butler (GEO) was quoted in the Wall Street Journal in an article titled, "British Beavers Gnaw Their Way Back, but Are They Worth a Dam?"

<http://www.wsj.com/articles/british-beavers-gnaw-their-way-back-but-are-they-worth-a-dam-1441671242>

Deborah Harris and Patti Giuffre (SOCI) are gaining local and national recognition for their new book titled Taking the Heat: Women Chefs and Gender Inequality in the Professional Kitchen, published this year by Rutgers University Press.

KUT.org

<http://kut.org/post/austin-chefs-cut-through-kitchen-gender-divide>

University News Services

http://www.txstate.edu/news/news_releases/news_archive/2015/September-2015/TakingHeat090915.html

University Star

<http://star.txstate.edu/node/4561>

University Star

Vicki Brittain (POSI) is mentioned in an article about the new Campus Carry Task Force. She will lead the new committee and make recommendations to President Trauth. (9/14)

Melissa Derrick, Administrative Assistant for International Studies, is featured in an article about her run for Place 6 on the San Marcos City Council. (9/17)