

September and October 2016 Acknowledgements
College of Liberal Arts

Congratulations:

Jeff Helgeson (HIST) has been named the subject matter expert on the winning bid for the National Park Service's museum development team at the Pullman National Monument.

Jimmy McWilliams (HIST) had his article, "The Examined Lie," from Summer 2015 American Scholar named a Notable Essay of 2015 in The Best American Essays 2016.

Elizabeth Bishop and Ellen Tillman (HIST) have been chosen to guest edit an issue of the Graduate Journal of Social Sciences. The theme for the issue is "New Military Histories of the 20th Century."

In the News:

EXTERNAL VENUES

Frank de la Teja (HIST) participated in a BBC World Service program entitled "Hispanic in Texas." The program originally aired October 13. <http://www.bbc.co.uk/programmes/p04b3ndh>

Deborah Harris (SOCI) will appear in the documentary, "Hungry," which will air on the Logo channel at 8pm on November 17th.

UNIVERSITY STAR

Jeffrey Mauck (HIST) and History graduate students Krista Pollett and Heather Haley were interviewed about infamous bank robbers, Bonnie and Clyde's possible historic ties to San Marcos. (9/7)

Tammy Gonzales, program director of the Center of the Study of the Southwest is quoted on the free screening of "Selena," a biopic on the Queen of Tejano. (9/20)

Kenneth Grasso and Donald Inbody (POSI) discuss the student benefits of the Political Science Departments' series Discourse in Democracy.

Grants:

Kenneth Grasso and Don Inbody (POSI) received a $2500 grant from the board of the Association for the Study of Free Institutions to bring Professor Wilfred McClay to campus as a guest speaker for their Discourse in Democracy series.